WHAT TO DO

It is suggested that:

1. You complete this computation and check this outline.
2. You send this, when completed, to your beneficiary.
3. You contact your Insurance Officer, Legal Officer or Personnel Officer if you have any questions.

Secure the following documents and make them available to your beneficiary:

1. Your will
2. Your power of attorney
3. Deeds and other legal papers
4. Commercial insurance policies
5. Birth certificates for:
   a. Yourself
   b. Your wife
   c. Your children
   d. Other dependents
6. Any divorce decrees
7. Court orders
8. If a former wife has died, her death certificate.

In event of a claim, contact:

1. BuSandA for accrued pay
2. BuPers for other benefits*
3. Veterans Administration for Pensions*
4. Veterans Administration for Government Insurance
5. Six month's Gratuity (Includes all pay but not allowances) is paid automatically*

Important Note:

The pay, allotments for dependents and insurance, and family allowance checks for servicemen listed as missing continue until the status of the man is designated otherwise. No death benefits are paid until the serviceman has been officially declared dead by the Navy Department.

*These benefits are voided if death is the result of the serviceman's own misconduct.
