Father, Son Serve

After 12 months with the Seabees on the Solomon Islands, Otto J. Litzkow, chief ship fitter, has been transferred to the Admiralty

James R. Litzkow

Otto J. Litzkow

Islands. Husband of Lorraine J. Litzkow, 1213 Hickory st., Chief Litzkow enlisted Oct. 30, 1943. and trained at Camp Roussean and Port Hueneme, Calif.

His son Pvt. James R. Litzkow is at Amarillo., ex., training as an aeriel mechanic. A member of the Madison Civil Air Patrol and state national guard, he enlisted Oct. 12, 1943, in the army air forces. He attended West high school.