Hi'ho you big moose, you!

Today's Independence Day & we have it off. We've just been pottin' around this aft. & slept this morning. They're starting a strict demerit system now & are plenty chicken shit. I got nailed for jumpin' across a corner of grass & going from the day room with no hat on. I don't know how many demerits I'm going to get, but hope I get no more than 6. They allow you 6 & after that you start walking off tours on Sunday. I don't think I'd like that very well. I got screwed on pay day as John probably told you. That damn Lt.

told me I owe Sammy 40¢.
I bought a nice pr. of glasses & I'm just about broke now. I haint got but 10 bucks now, but I do have $18 dollars comin' from boys who borrowed & lost their asses in crap games.
That damn game has broken more hearts & more pocket books than one could well im-agine. It has done a lot of fatten-ing of pocketbooks too, tho, of course.

I got some cookies from Joan this morning & they were pretty damn good for the first time. Maybe her mother made 'em, I don't know, but they were well appreciated. That's for sure. I'm getting a letter every day from her now. Every time I send her one, I enclose a dime. Some day when I get home again, maybe we'll have a little to do something with. Good idea, no?

I wrote to Wally & should be hearing from him in a couple days. Well gotta sign for now. Treat the women good & be good yourself.

Slap-Happily,

Dick.
