On Our Anniversary

Darling

The war has taught me that love is not just looking at one another but looking together in the same direction.

My precious baby,

The mail man was pretty good to me today, I got three letters from you, one from Hollinger, Joe C., Bob, Rodrigues, I guess that covers all of them, This is the third one of these anniv. cartoons I am sending to you and it will be the last for this year. I can't say happy anniversary dear because we would have to be together for that. But I am sure we can celebrate that next year, and really mean it. I really think this is the ~~last~~ best one of the three cartoons, and I think it says more then a whole mile of letters could. That is the reason I kept this one for the last. It is just like getting some cake after you finish your meal. ~~you didn't expect to get so much attention did you?~~ In your letter today you said I should ask Inez to come to Madison some time and you could go out together I will tell her that the next time I write to her and I will also tell her she can stay at our house over sat. + sun. if she wants or any other night she might decide on, after that it will be up to you if you want her to come over again. From the letters I have received from her I am sure she must be a whole barrelful of fun and I am sure you will like her. When she comes over give her one of those good solid smacks on her tail and tell her that is one I sent along. Make it sting just a little and tell her if she comes around to visit us when I get home I am saving one for her that will sting enough so she
